Mark Warner has over 30 years experience in law enforcement, criminal investigations, private security and accounting. He has conducted numerous investigations, from criminal prosecution to internal corporate investigations resulting in civil litigation.

Mark has worked for the Michigan Department of State Police in the uniform and investigative services divisions, in public accounting and for various private security investigative firms.

For the past seven years Mark has been the Midwest Regional Manager, Forensic Accounting & Investigative Services, with Jefferson Wells. He was instrumental in the conviction of an employee for an embezzlement that spanned 2 1/2 years and involved approximately $500,000 in losses. His experience resulted in combined insurance and restitution recoveries of $275,000 for the client.

Mark will discuss several cases of attempted fraud by internal and external perpetrators. He will explain the investigative techniques and tools used to build the case against the subjects.
